Activity : Balloon Game

Prepare

1. Balloons—one per two children, plus extras
2. Whiteboard and markers or chalkboard and chalk
3. Timer—clock or watch with second hand, stopwatch, or timer app

Play

Divide the children into pairs. Give each pair a balloon. Each pair faces each other several feet apart. Set the timer for one minute and start the game. The first player for each pair shouts the first word of the SuperTruth, then volleys the balloon to his or her partner. The teammate then says the next word of the SuperTruth and volleys the balloon back. All pairs continue in this fashion until the SuperTruth is completed without the balloons hitting the floor. The pairs then immediately start over at the beginning of the SuperTruth. The object is to complete the SuperTruth as many times as possible in one minute. Only count the number of times the SuperTruth was completed; not partial times. Players cannot catch or trap the balloon against their bodies. They may hit them with their hands, arms, heads, legs, or feet. If a balloon hits the ground, the pair must restart the SuperTruth at the beginning.

Say

Let us say the SuperTruth together “I will live my life knowing that Jesus will come again”. Now, stand facing each other several feet apart. The first player to start will shout the first word of the SuperTruth. Next, your partner will volley the balloon while shouting the next word of the SuperTruth. Your goal is to complete the SuperTruth as many times as you can in a minute. You may hit the balloon with your hands, arms, heads, legs, or feet but you are not allowed to catch or trap the balloon against your body. If a balloon hits the ground, you and your partner will need to restart the SuperTruth from the beginning.

Discussion

1. Have you ever thought you couldn't be forgiven? Did Satan tell Chris the truth when he said there is no forgiveness? John 8:44 says Satan has always hated the truth.... He is a liar and the father of lies.
2. How does Satan want us to feel when we do something wrong? How is Jesus the opposite of Satan? (John 10:10)
3. Why can we trust Jesus? (John 14:6)
4. What should we do when we sin? (1 John 1:9)

Pray

Dear Lord Jesus, thank You for loving me so much that You died on the cross to forgive my sins and take away my guilt and shame. Help me live for You. Amen.
